

Changi WWII™ A Changi Museum War Trail

"The most moving experience. Our tour guide was fantastic."
– Barbara C, UK

"This tour was amazing and our guide was so knowledgeable. A must for any visit to Singapore. Well worth the money."
– Marc R, Australia

Tour Synopsis

Once the site of many prisoner-of-war camps during the Japanese Occupation, Changi has since gone down in history as a place of much pain, torture and human suffering. It is said that more Australian PoWs perished under incarceration than in battle itself. Whether it is on the Death Railway or the countless labour camps in Japan and Formosa (Taiwan), the Changi WWII trail commemorates the fight of brave men and women during battle and in internment. Hear their story.

Book Tour

Buy Online and Save

Every Saturday / 10.00am – 1.00pm
Meet at Pasir Ris MRT Station, outside Exit B

CLICK TO VIEW MAP

By Cab: Alight at Pasir Ris Central, in front of White Sands Mall. You will enter the MRT station via Exit A.

Exit B is just across.

End Point: Pasir Ris MRT Station

Tour Highlights:

- Fully guided visit to The Changi Museum and Changi Chapel
- Walk on Changi Beach, site of the Sook Ching Massacres
- Drive through Changi Village and learn of its colourful pre-war and wartime history
- Explore Johore Battery, with its replica WWII 15-inch gun battery
- Brief stops outside the old Changi Jail and Selarang Barracks, both of which served as PoW internment camps during the Japanese Occupation

Additional Information:

- Reservation is required for this tour. Please phone (63251631 / 62142451) or email by 5pm the day before to reserve your place(s). (This helps us in doing our bit for the environment by not over catering coach transport, thereby reducing unnecessary exhaust emissions.) Thereafter, please call to verify the status of the tour.